Newsletter nr 38 - 30th October 2024

"It is wise to hold your horses before making a judgement on a partially revealed event. Initially, I was sympathetic with Chris Kaba's family who claimed that, convicted criminal Chris Kaba, shot dead by police in South London two years ago, was trying to turn his life around. However, the 24-year-old remained a key player in one of London's most feared and dangerous gangs and had gunned down a rival in a packed nightclub just days before he was killed. The policeman who shot him knew how dangerous he was. Knowing - now - the full facts, my criticism of the jury's decision to find the policeman innocent, has evaporated. Am never too old to learn from my mistakes."

Don't forget to buy Father Vlad's book Life Squared!

As I approached my 80th birthday, I wanted to find out what I really thought about life.

Writing this book has crystallised my experiences. I now know better what I have learned and what I think.

Now, that I'm coming to the end of my life, I have finally learned how to live. Time's slippage nudged me to act on my dream of passing what I have learned on to others.
