Newsletter nr 39 - 10th November 2024

"When Rene Descartes (1596-1650) said, "I think, therefore I am," words that resonate with the statement of Ibn Sina (a Muslim who died 1037ce) - commonly known in the West as Avicenna, "our awareness of ourselves is our existence itself," seems to imply that our perception of reality is identical to that reality.

I may think I am a fine person. However, my actions will let others - including God - decide whether my thinking is realistic.

Republicans hope - dream? Imagine? - Trump will be a fine president. The next four years will reveal reality. Actions speak louder than dreams."

Don't forget to buy Father Vlad's book Life Squared!

As I approached my 80th birthday, I wanted to find out what I really thought about life. Writing this book has crystallised my experiences. I now know better what I have learned and what I think.

Now, that I'm coming to the end of my life, I have finally learned how to live. Time's slippage nudged me to act on my dream of passing what I have learned on to others.
