Newsletter nr 51 - 27th April 2025 Second Sunday of Easter

"Last Saturday night, Easter Vigil, congregations entered churches that were almost entirely in darkness. The only source of light was the Easter candle. Gradually, that light was shared as each of them lit their own candles from it. Jesus had said, 'I am the light of the world', and he gave his followers the assurance that they would never walk in darkness but would have the light of life.

The lighting of the Easter candle and the passing on of its flame magnificently symbolise this declaration and promise. Eastertide is, above all, a celebration of light!

Living for others, giving them your time, slows down ageing as your years are given away and you feel lighter.

By the time you read my next newsletter I will be 86. I may not look it, but that will be my age.

Ask yourself, "Am I source of light for those around me? Does my life of service to people I meet show that I am a child of God?" If not, never too soon – nor too late – to change.

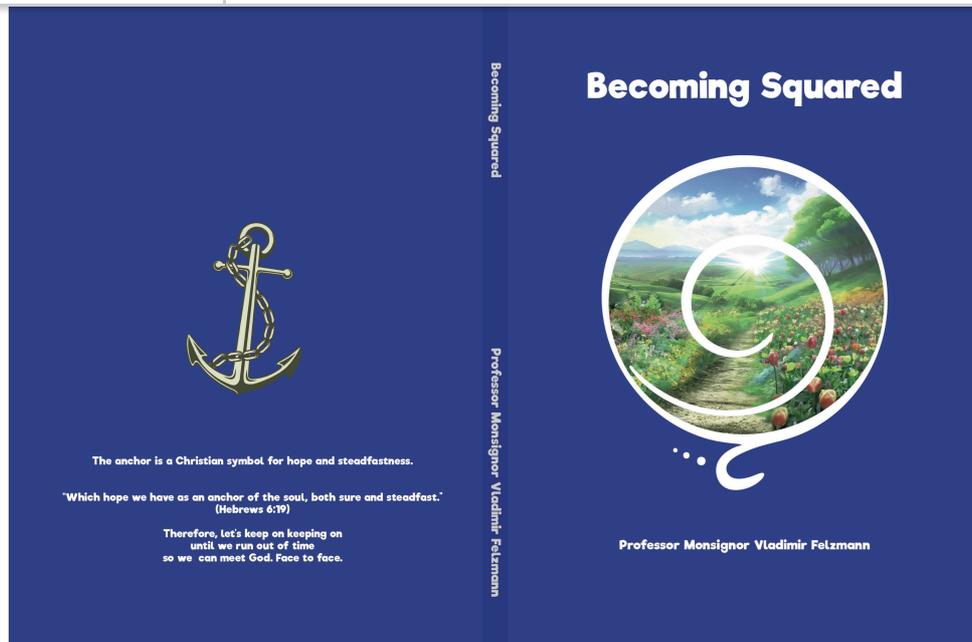

When you live to serve, you soon realise that it is Ubuntu - a South African word that contains the notion that, "what is good for you is also good for me." Try it and you will see how true it is.

Pope Francis saw himself as Servus Servorum Dei – The Servant of the Servants of God – and you can see how so many appreciated him so much."

London and received his Doctorate in Divinity (summa cum laude) from the Lateran University in Rome.

Vlad has led retreats, lectured to and spiritually guided people ever since his priestly ordination in 1969. He speaks English, Czech, and still a bit of Spanish, Italian, French and used to speak Latin. He enjoys friendship, prayer and writing. He keeps as fit as possible and does press-ups – alternating this with squats – daily to the total of each year of his life since conception.

He was director of the Diocese of Westminster's work with Young People and Canary Wharf Multifaith Chaplaincy Catholic Chaplain. For many years he was a Trustee of The Passage and is the Catholic Chaplain for Sport, founder of the John Paul II Foundation for Sport (which he launched in 2011), chair of CaAPA, and trustee emeritus of Genesis. A social entrepreneur, Vlad founded and directed two different Diocesan Pilgrimages – YAP for young people and WDP for all – to Lourdes and founded the Spiritual Peer Educational Centres SPEC, LOFT and SPECast.

Don't forget to buy Father Vlad's book Life Squared!

As I approached my 80th birthday, I wanted to find out what I really thought about life. Writing this book has crystallised my experiences. I now know better what I have learned and what I think.

Now, that I'm coming to the end of my life, I have finally learned how to live. Time's slippage nudged me to act on my dream of passing what I have learned on to others.
